OCTOBER 30, 2016: THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parish Family,

As we approach the month of November, we can see and feel the signs of the coming winter. The lawns are increasingly covered with leaves that have fallen from the trees once so colorfully adorned with foliage. The chill in the air becomes for permanent and the sunlight of the day grows ever shorter. This week, our neighborhoods will see children “trick-or-treating” in the hopes of acquiring tasty, sweet treats.

The passing of time and seasons are a powerful reminder of the brevity of our lives on this earth. As people of faith, we believe that this world is not all that there is. For those who are faithful to Christ, eternal life beckons with its promise of everlasting peace, joy and union with God in the heavenly kingdom.

In the Church’s liturgical year, the month of November provides us with an opportunity to remember those who have died. I would ask that you please consult the bulletin for the Mass schedule for All Saints Day and All Souls Day. All Saints Day is a day to celebrate the victory of those holy souls who are in heaven and who intercede on our behalf. The Church Triumphant provides us with many examples of people who lived lives of heroic virtue. These saints can inspire us by their example and they want us to join them in the heavenly realm.

All Souls Day is a day to pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory (i.e. the Church in Suffering). We pray for our deceased loved ones and our friends. If we pray for a particular soul that has already been purified and has gone on to his/her heavenly reward, our prayers are not in vain. In God’s loving providence, the prayers of the Church Militant are applied according to God’s infinite wisdom.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. (Order of Christian Funerals, Rite of Committal, no. 223)

God bless you.

Fr. Dan Redmond

All Saints Day and All Souls Day: November 1 & 2

Tuesday November 1, All Saints Day, is a holy day of obligation. Masses will be at 8:45 am AND 7:00 pm. Catholics are encouraged to study the lives of the saints in order to follow their example. For our PSR students, Saints' Dress-Up Day is Tuesday, November 1 before the 7:00 pm Mass. All are welcome to come early (6:15 pm) and hear our "saints" as they share interesting facts about their lives.

On Wednesday November 2, All Souls Day, the Church celebrates the commemoration of all the faithful departed. The All Soul's Day Mass here at St. Patrick will be at 8:45 am, with a breakfast brunch following Mass hosted by the Bereavement Ministry. We will be recognizing, in a special way, St. Patrick parishioners who have passed away during the past year.

Pro-Life

One of the tragedies of the abortion culture is that life in the womb has been so heartbreakingly devalued. To embrace the arguments of the "pro-choice" crowd one must conclude that the child in the womb doesn't exist, isn't there, has no being. But nothing could be further from the truth. That child is known by God and, as such, has being. Please pray to end the killing of innocent babies and the healing of those participating in abortion. Prayer: Lord God, we confess that in You we live and move and have our being. Amen.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

"No one has received into his heart, as much as Mary did, that mystery, that truly divine dimension of the Redemption effected on Calvary by means of the death of the Son, together with the sacrifice of her maternal heart, together with her definitive 'fiat.'" St. John Paul II, Dives in Misericordia, 1980.
