JANUARY 29, 2017: FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parish Family,

We are very blessed to have a very fine program of religious instruction for our children here at St. Patrick Parish. Our Parish School of Religion provides the children of our parish an opportunity to learn about God and His love for all of us in a classroom setting. While this can in no way substitute for the example of parents, it does provide our children with another way in which they can learn about the one, true God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I am so thankful for all those who make this program possible. This week, from January 29th – February 4th, the Catholic Church in the United States will observe Catholic Schools Week. One might ask how this relates to a parish that does not have a Catholic grade school (K-8).

Catholic education takes many forms. I like to think that our P.S.R. program is a school where faith is shared and celebrated. Children who come to learn about Christ are more apt to develop a relationship with Christ and that will, in turn, lead them toward a greater love for Christ and His Church. This is our hope and this is our prayer.

This week, I would ask you pray for all those who share the Catholic faith the children of our Church, wherever they may be. Please remember to thank Our Blessed Lord for the wonderful people here at St. Patrick's who do this week in and week out. Let us also pray for Catholic families. They are the "Domestic Church." May our families truly grow in faith, hope and love and may their homes be places Christ is known and loved.

God bless you.

Fr. Dan Redmond

Collection for the Church in Latin America

Next weekend, February 4 & 5, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Please prayerfully consider supporting this collection, which assists programs that strengthen the faith in Latin Americas and the Caribbean. Your gifts help share the faith by providing lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, as well as other programs.

To learn more, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america. The 2017 campaign highlights the faith of Latin America and the many opportunities we have to share faith with them. We also recognize the tremendous benefit of having our Latin American brothers and sisters in the Church and the revitalization their fervor brings to the faith. In addition to offering our help and support to the Catholics of Latin America, we have much to learn from them.

To schedule a Mass Intention or Bulletin Announcement

Please call St. Patrick Parish Office at 440-298-1327, or place a Mass Intention envelope in the collection basket. We are scheduling Mass Intentions for 2017 and 2018. For bulletin announcements, please contact Pattie Batchman at pat-tie.batchman@gmail.com by Monday evening. Thank You!

Religious Education: Parish School of Religion

The next meeting for the PSR Parent Group will be on Tuesday, January 31 at 6:30 p.m. We would like your feedback from the Family Fun Night, insights and suggestions for Vacation Bible School this summer. We will share information on the upcoming grade-level "PSR Family Masses" the first weekend of the month. These Masses will provide an opportunity for our students to be introduced to liturgical ministries associated with the celebration of the Mass. There will also be an opportunity to gain new insights on parenting. All parents are welcome!!

The first PSR Family Mass will be on Sunday February 5 at 9:30 am for our 6th & 7th grade students. Participation is the best means of learning so please plan on joining us ... and it will be Donut Sunday (which is always a treat for the children!).

Pro-Life:

The 23rd Annual National Prayer Service was held on Friday, January 27, from 8:30-10:30 am in Washington, DC. there was a Catholic Mass at 7:30 am. President Trump, this past Monday, signed an executive order blocking foreign aid or federal funding for international nongovernmental organizations that provide or "promote" abortions. "I think the president, it's no secret, has made it very clear that he's a pro-life president," White House Press Secretary Sean Spicer told reporters.

Continue to lift the unborn, all through the world, in your prayers.
