April 22, 2018 FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear Parish Family,

Let me begin by thanking all those who helped to make my installation as Pastor so very special last Sunday. I am so very grateful to our Good Samaritans who put together a fantastically delicious brunch after Mass that served more than 100 people. I am so very thankful for all those who helped to set up and clean up as well.

The Mass with Bishop Perez was very beautiful. I would like to express my appreciation to our liturgical ministers (i.e. Altar Servers, PLA's, Lector, Cantor, Choir and Musicians). I am so thankful to Deacon Bob Schwartz and Deacon Phil Kraynik, who are always there for our parish community. Our Religious Education coordinator Marilyn Schwartz and the entire P.S.R. team worked with our children to create wonderful banners that were brought in by the children and hung on the side walls during the opening procession.

I am grateful to our Parish Finance Council and Parish Pastoral Council for their presence at the Mass. To be sure, I wish to thank those who offered gifts to both me and the Bishop. We truly cherish your generosity. I am so thankful to Bishop Perez for his confidence in me. Finally, I'd like to thank those who captured the day through pictures and video and to all those who assisted at the Mass by their prayerful presence, I say, "Thank you!"

I am so blessed to serve this wonderful parish community that is St. Patrick's Parish. With the assistance of the grace of God and the Intercession of both the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Patrick, let us look to the future through the eyes of faith, hope and love!

God bless you.

Fr. Dan Redmond
