Dear Parish Family,

I hope that you and your loved ones enjoyed a blessed Christmas. Today we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. The Christmas season, while short in duration, is a great opportunity to reconnect with family and friends.

This holy season also draws our attention to the Holy Family of Nazareth. The Gospel of Luke (2:41-52) recounts the finding of the child Jesus in the Temple by Joseph and Mary. Our Blessed Lord states, “Why were you looking for me? Did you now know that I must be in my Father’s house?” After this, Jesus went with them to Nazareth, “and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart.”

Obedience to God and a prayerful spirit. These qualities are so essential for the life of the Christian. As we begin a new year, I pray that you and your families, loved ones and friends will come to know and experience the peace of the Holy Family of Nazareth. May we ponder the things of God and be obedient to his commandments. In doing so, we will be a source of peace to others.

God Bless You,

Fr. Dan Redmond

To the congregation of St. Patrick Church,
 We deeply thank you all for your kind expressions of sympathy. It is gratefully acknowledged and deeply appreciated. Your friendship and support will forever be remembered. With love,
 Chris and Natalie Potpan

Pro - Life Prayer: Heavenly Father, you have made the womb of each woman a very special place. Help us hold fast to the sanctity of this first home of humanity, remembering the wonderful mystery, that God inhabited the womb of a young woman and came forth as the savior and deliverer of the world. We ask this is the Name of the one who came forth, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The March for Life official program will be held on Friday, January 18, 2019 on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. at the Washington Monument.

PSR News

Thank you to all of the children who participated in the Christmas Nativity on Christmas Eve. Everyone did a beautiful job and brought the true meaning of Christmas to all of us! Thank you to Mrs. Mary Husek and Mrs. Amanda Schwartz for their guidance and direction in helping to make this Christmas Pageant a very special one. We appreciate all of the children who brought gifts to the altar during the Offertory procession, and we also want to thank a very special Christmas angel who brought many gifts and gave them to the children who did not have one, so that all children could be represented.

There will be no PSR on Tuesday, January 1st. PSR classes will resume on Tuesday, January 8th. There will be no Children's Liturgy of the Word on Sunday, December 30th. Children's Liturgy of the Word will resume on Sunday, January 6th.

A PSR Parent Board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, January 8th. If you would like to volunteer to help with the PSR Fun Night, please consider joining us for the meeting. The annual PSR Fun Night is scheduled for Tuesday, January 15th. We have scheduled an alternate Family Fun Night on Tuesday, January 22nd just in case of inclement weather on the 15th. Please NOTE: the Family Fun Night will be starting at the earlier time of 6:00 P.M. with a pizza dinner. Mark your calendars and bring the whole family for a very fun evening!

What's Your Story

Anyone who has encountered Jesus knows that life is never the same again. We want to hear your story of how Jesus changed your Life! Email your story to Jessica.ianiro@gmail.com, or place in the box in the vestibule of Church. Your story will be shared in a future bulletin, giving great glory to God for what He's done in your life, while strengthening the faith of your fellow parishioners! There's no easier way to evangelize than to share your personal story of faith.

A big Thank You to all those who took time from their busy schedule to join in the Christmas decorating of our church. The results are beautiful.

We Welcome Everyone to St. Patrick Church!!

As we gather to praise and worship God at Mass, we become the Body of Christ, united to serve God and others. We welcome all those who are visiting and thank you for sharing this special time with us today. God bless you.
