Dear Parish Family,

I want to take this opportunity to make you aware of an online scam that has been at work for a number of months now. Parishioners have reported that they have been receiving emails from me asking for gift cards for those who need assistance. The emails end with my name and appear to be genuine. These emails are NOT from me. My name is listed as the sender, but the email address is not my email account. If you, or someone you know, receives an email requesting gift cards, please know notify me as soon as possible.

Thank you and God bless you.

Fr. Dan Redmond

What's Your Story

Anyone who has encountered Jesus knows that life is never the same again.

We want to hear your story of how Jesus changed your Life!

Email your story to Jessica.ianiro@gmail.com. Your story will be shared in a future bulletin, giving great glory to God for what He's done in your life, while strengthening the faith of your fellow parishioners! There's no easier way to evangelize than to share your personal story of faith.

Coming Soon - St. Patrick Giving Tree

There will be a "Giving Tree" again this year to care for families in our area. The colored tags that will note specific items are needed back at church by November 10. Watch the bulletin for Giving Tree details .

Mass Intentions can be requested by using the envelopes found in the back of church or by contacting the church office. We are accepting Mass Intentions for the year 2020.

Parish Office Hours Monday thru Thursday 9:30 am until 12:30 pm. Office phone (440) 298-1327. Bulletin request are due on the Monday prior to the weekend publication.

PSR News:
 Those children who will be receiving their First Communion and their parents participated in the Rite of Enrollment during Mass last Sunday. Parents and parishioners were asked to support our First Communicants as the children grow in their love for Jesus.

Bishop Richard Lennon is laid to rest at Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

With those words, Bishop Lennon, the 10th bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland, was laid to rest on Nov. 5 in the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in downtown Cleveland. Celebrating the funeral Mass was his successor, Bishop Nelson Perez. Concelebrants included more than a dozen and a half bishops and more than 100 priests from the Cleveland diocese and beyond.

RESPECT Pro-Life News

God hates death and has destroyed it through the death and Resurrection of Christ and has made us the People of Life. LORD, thank You for the hope and joy of this promise that You gave through Isaiah and fulfilled in Christ.

Stockings For Soldiers

The Good Sams would like to report that after a last weekend push we were able to fill and deliver to DeJohn Funeral Home a WHOPPING 262 stockings (8 year total of 12715) for our troops this year. This was truly a total parish activity. We would like to thank just a few of the many people that have helped out with this program. Our very efficient stocking stuffers Carol, Patrick, Keeghan, & Quin Sirl, Marilyn Schwartz, the PSR teachers and PSR students for writing Christmas cards for the soldiers. Dr. Rusty Albrecht DDS and his staff, Todd Schmidt of Advance Capital Management and John Roberts Tours for their generous donations. Mary martin for making all the rosaries. Deacon bob, Deacon Phil and Mary Husek for their greatly appreciated help and support. Last but not least, thanks to you, one and all for your amazing support of our troops. God Bless, Jim & Carol Sirl.

Welcome To St. Patrick's Church

We welcome all those who are visiting and thank you for sharing this special time with us today. If you would like to join our parish family, registration forms are available in the parish office. We look forward to meeting you.
