Dear Parish Family,

Today, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. The long awaited Messiah is revealed as the Lord of both the Chosen People and the Gentiles as well. He is Lord of Lords and Kings of Kings. The Magi offered gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Let us offer the Lord the gifts of our hearts, minds and souls each and every day of our lives.

May God bless you and your loved ones in this New Year!

Fr. Dan Redmond

Found on Formed

Our parishioners are finding great content on FORMED On Demand. Here's what Brooke Perlik has to share:

"The Brother Francis series has been an integral part of my daughter's Catholic upbringing. She received them as a gift from her Godfather; and I could not be more thankful. They cover almost every imaginable topic; and are genuinely educational and entertaining for the whole family.

They are a great tool to plant the seeds of our beliefs with young toddlers, and are equally as good at cultivating the seeds as they grow.

My favorite "Brother Francis" moment happened about two weeks after the Baptism of newest baby girl. She was laying on a blanket in the middle of the living room and began to cry. My older daughter of four years, went up to her and started singing to try to calm her down. Her lyrics were something like this, "...it's ok Brynn, you don't have to be sad, you were Baptized and God is inside you..."

I also thoroughly enjoy watching her engage with the music. At age two, she would joyfully dance around the house at the sound of the intro music; and I would often have to play that intro over and over again. By age three, she was singing along with the prayers and hymns. She learned all the words to The Our Father from the song in the video.

I encourage all Catholic families with children to take advantage this wonderful resource."
