Dear Parish Family,

The Christmas Season has come and gone. This weekend, we return to the season of Ordinary Time in the Liturgical Year, as we celebrate the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time is the name given to the thirty-three or thirty-four weeks (depending upon Easter) in the course of the year apart from Advent/Christmas and Lent/Triduum/Easter. Ordinary Time is that part of the liturgical year when no particular moment or aspect of the Christian mystery is celebrated.

The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ. Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (<http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgical-year/ordinary-time.cfm>).

The color worn by the Priests and Deacons at Mass during the season of Ordinary Time is green. The color green represents hope, growth, increase, life, Immortality and fidelity (The Catholic Source Book, p. 299).

There is, of course, nothing routine when it comes to our relationship with the Lord. May this portion of Ordinary Time be a time of extraordinary, spiritual growth for each and every one of us.

God bless you,

Fr. Dan Redmond
